

Quiz & Answers 07-123

1. Forklift inspections are only required once per year. True or False
2. A forklift will tip over if the center of gravity is outside the stability triangle. True or False
3. OSHA requires retraining at least every 3 years. True or False
4. The safest way to cross a railroad track is at an angle. True or False
5. If the forklift does not have a seatbelt then it is not required on that particular model. True or False
6. Forklifts are designed to handle loads of any size and weight. True or False
7. Driving with an obstructed view is allowed if it is only within 10 yards. True or False
8. Although forklift injuries are common, no one has ever been killed in a forklift accident. True or False
9. Maximum safe speed should be equivalent to around 20 miles per hour. True or False
10. It is okay to give someone in management a ride if the walk is more than 200 yards. True or False
11. No person is allowed to pass underneath a raised load. True or False
12. If the load is too heavy or too far from the fulcrum the forklift will tip forward. True or False
13. The “Load Center” is the sensor on the forklift that warns if the load is too heavy. True or False
14. Without a load a forklift can never tip over. True or False
15. If a forklift begins to tip over you should quickly jump away from the forklift and falling items.
True or False
16. Driving across a slope or angle could cause the forklift to tip over. True or False
17. When transporting a load on a slope, always keep the forks pointed downhill. True or False
18. Forks should be lowered to the ground when the operator is more than 25 feet away. True or False
19. Battery charging should only be done in designated areas. True or False
20. Lifting an employee on the forks is approved only if your supervisor is watching. True or False

I understand the information contained in this training program and have passed the quiz regarding Forklift Operator Safety.

Printed Name

Signature

Date

Forklift Operator Safety Training Program #07-123

www.osha-safety-training.net

Answer Key 07-123

1. Forklift inspections are only required once per year. False
2. A forklift will tip over if the center of gravity is outside the stability triangle. True
3. OSHA requires retraining at least every 3 years. True
4. The safest way to cross a railroad track is at an angle. True
5. If the forklift does not have a seatbelt then it is not required on that particular model. False
6. Forklifts are designed to handle loads of any size and weight. False
7. Driving with an obstructed view is allowed if it is only within 10 yards. False
8. Although forklift injuries are common, no one has ever been killed in a forklift accident. False
9. Maximum safe speed should be equivalent to around 20 miles per hour. False
10. It is okay to give someone in management a ride if the walk is more that 200 yards. False
11. No person is allowed to pass underneath a raised load. True
12. If the load is too heavy or too far from the fulcrum the forklift will tip forward. True
13. The “Load Center” is the sensor on the forklift that warns if the load is too heavy. False
14. Without a load a forklift can never tip over. False
15. If a forklift begins to tip over you should quickly jump away from the forklift and falling items. False
16. Driving across a slope or angle could cause the forklift to tip over. True
17. When transporting a load on a slope, always keep the forks pointed downhill. False
18. Forks should be lowered to the ground when the operator is more than 25 feet away. True
19. Battery charging should only be done in designated areas. True
20. Lifting an employee on the forks is approved only if your supervisor is watching. False

